KARNATAK LAW SOCIETY, BELGAVI

VISION

To be the leader in professional and technical education with global output and national spirit.

MISSION

To impart quality education and develop technical and professional skills beyond syllabus and preparing them to be competent globally

KARNATAK LAW SOCIETY

History of any institution is nothing but the history of individual who sacrifice all their time, money and energy for building it over decades. During the pre-independence time, when law education was very expensive and was not within the reach of common man, Karnatak Law Society (KLS) was founded with a dream of making education, particularly law education affordable to common man by starting a Law College at Belagavi. A group of freedom fighters and eminent lawyers, with a distinct vision and totally selfless service attitude, dedication, a mission of imparting value based education of high standards, established the Karnatak Law Society in 1939 and later extended their educational activities by establishing science, commerce, engineering, management institutions, etc. Additions to this list are pre-primary school, primary school and public school to fulfill elementary education. It is difficult to establish institutions, but it is all the more difficult to run them successfully as, it needs efficiency, sincerity and honesty of purpose. Sacrifice is a proper compendium for all these virtues. The pinnacle position of the Society is due to the selfless service rendered by the founder members as well as the tireless and sincere work devotedly done by the younger generation; who have shouldered the responsibility of successfully running the educational institutions established by the Society. Today in addition to leading lawyers, the Society has a pool of dedicated professionals like engineers, doctors, industrialists and chartered accountants as its members.
